Associated Builders and Contractors Inc. Honors Construction Firms

Nancy Hollingshead
Tulsa World (Oklahoma)

A total of 24 commercial construction companies received Eagle Awards on Thursday at the Associated Builders and Contractors Inc.'s annual Excellence in Construction awards banquet. Judging for this year's competition was done by an out-of-state ABC chapter. In all, awards were presented in 53 categories. There were more than 100 entries.

This year's top winner was Flintco Inc. with 10 Eagle Awards. Manhattan Construction Co. received five and Crossland Heavy Contractors, Oil Capital Electric, Fleming Building Co. and Green Country Interiors each earned three Eagle Awards. The most honored project was the Broken Arrow Public Schools Performing Arts Center, which received Eagle Awards in three categories. Tulsa's River Spirit Casino received top recognition in two categories. Two $100 Million mega-projects were recognized. Manhattan earned an award for the Downstream Casino, and Flinto was honored for the Oklahoma State University T. Boone Pickens Stadium expansion.
